FSSS-CSN BARGAINING COMMITTEES ARE WORKING HARD TO MAKE PROGRESS!

On October 16, 2018, delegates from the public sector unions in the Fédération de la santé et des services sociaux (FSSS-CSN) elected the bargaining committees for the next round of public sector bargaining.

The committees include members from the four classes of personnel and many regions of Québec. They will work on all stages of the bargaining process, from the current consultations to drawing up our list of demands to bargaining with the employer.

Each bargaining committee includes the class representative, two active members from the class, the public sector vice president, and employees assigned to the bargaining process.

The members of the class committees are:

Class 1

- Elisabeth Gagnon-Tremblay, CHU Sainte-Justine
- Nicole Richard, CISSS des Îles
- Félix-Olivier Bonneville, FSSS-CSN Class 1 Representative

Class 2

- Louis-Martin Reid-Gaudet, CIUSSS du Nord-de-l'Île-de-Montréal

- Guillaume Clavette, CIUSSS de la Capitale-Nationale
- Christian Meilleur, FSSS-CSN Class 2 Representative

Class 3

- Sylvie Lachance, CIUSSS de l'Estrie-CHUS

- Simon Rochefort, FSSS-CSN Class 3 Representative

Class 4

Consultations are underway: The floor is yours!

To make sure our bargaining demands reflect your needs, we're launching our largest consultation yet, including an online survey. As CSN members, you will all have a chance to make your voices heard and put your concerns forward for the next round of bargaining.

What are the main issues that need to be resolved? What potential solutions should be explored? It's your collective agreement: the floor is yours! We need your input to draw up a list of demands that meets your needs.

The survey takes about 10 minutes to complete. The consultation ends on Sunday, January 13, 2019.
